7th March 2013.

European Timber Regulation (EUTR)

From 3rd March 2013, the EUTR placed a legal obligation on all those placing timber or timber products on the European market for the first time (known as operators) to conduct due diligence (DD) on these products to minimise the risk that they are from illegal sources.

Traditional Products Ltd. would like to confirm that all timber purchased for the manufacture of our timber stair components is sourced from companies that comply with the Due Diligence system as enforced by European Timber Regulation (EUTR), Traditional Products Ltd. are able to provide any of the following Due Diligence information on the timber we purchase;

- Information: Access to information describing the timber and timber products, country of harvest, species, quantity, details of the supplier and information on compliance with national legislation.
- Risk assessment: Be able to assess the risk of illegal timber in the supply chain, based on the information identified above and taking into account criteria set out in the regulation.
- Risk mitigation: When the assessment shows that there is a risk of illegal timber in the supply chain that risk can be mitigated by requiring additional information and verification from the supplier.

Traditional Products Guarantees to follow through this due diligence information.

Kind Regards,

MJ Watson
